THE SOUTHERN REVIEW

INDEX TO VOLUMES 15-24

Explanatory Note

The TITLE INDEX beginning on page 1 lists alphabetically the title of each essay (entries are essays unless otherwise indicated), poem (pty), poem translation (pty tr), short story (ss), or review (rev) and supplies the name of the author, volume number, issue number, and page number. The AUTHOR INDEX beginning on page 30 gives the same information but cites the author's name before the title of the entry.

The SUBJECT INDEX beginning on page 57 is an index to reviews and essays only. In the case of reviews, each book reviewed is listed under both the title of the book and the name of its author. For example, the book Nursery Rhymes for the Dead by Sue Owen is reviewed by Howard Silver in an essay entitled "Sue Owen's Nursery Rhymes for the Dead." The subject entries for this review are:

Nursery Rhymes for the Dead. Sue Owen. rev 19(1):229

and

Owen, Sue. Nursery Rhymes for the Dead. rev 19(1):229

In the case of essays, most of the entries are names, usually names of authors, and these have been set in capital letters to distinguish them from the authors of reviewed books. For example, the subject entry for J. O. Tate's essay "Flannery O'Connor's Counterplot" is:

O'CONNOR, FLANNERY. Flannery O'Connor's Counterplot.
J. O. Tate. 16(4):869

Occasionally a book reviewed will generate a third entry similar to that for an essay, usually an author's name set in capital letters.

The first of the three numbers in each entry is the volume number. Volume 15 appeared in 1979, Volume 16 in 1980, Volume 17 in 1981, Volume 18 in 1982, Volume 19 in 1983, Volume 20 in 1984, Volume 21 in 1985, Volume 22 in 1986, Volume 23 in 1987, and Volume 24 in 1988. The second number, listed in parentheses, is the issue number. Number 1 always refers to the Winter (January) issue; Number 2, the Spring (April) issue; Number 3, the Summer (July) issue; and Number 4, the Autumn (October) issue. The final number listed in each entry is the page number.

Finally, this cumulative index of Volumes 15–24 gives little idea of what individual volumes contain. An annual index of each volume can be found at the end of its Autumn issue.

Acknowledgments

The compilers would like to give special thanks to Raytai S. Wu, Sheng-Shyong Her, and Chengmei Wang, all graduate students in Systems Science within the Department of Computer Science at Louisiana State University, for their generous technical assistance. Without their computer expertise many more years would have elapsed before this index was ready for print. In addition, Professor Jim Springer Borck and his assistant editor at the Eighteenth-Century Cumulative Bibliography, Scott Peeples, offered us patient and invaluable help in transforming a computer printout into a readable document. We are very grateful for the ready support they lent their southern neighbors. Finally, to Joanne McMullen and Nicola Mason, Managing Editor and Editorial Assistant, respectively, at The Southern Review, we extend our thanks for helping to bring this project to a successful conclusion.
